

Job Opening

MAP Global

We represent a network of ministries around the world that are passionate about proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ. MAP is a missions and ministry support agency located in the heart of the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains of Western North Carolina. We exist to support missionaries and ministry leaders on their journey to steward and fulfill their unique call from God. We do this by providing support and training, supplying networking and ministry growth opportunities as well as coaching in transition and changing ministry seasons.

Job Opportunity

Responsible for developing, leading and training the national support team, as well as providing direct support and care for our national partners. Additionally responsible for identifying, negotiating and establishing strong partnerships across the country, and for representing MAP at a variety of functions including community and national networking events.

Preferred Qualifications

- Graduate level training in either Ministry, Business, Communications, Public Relations or similar
- A minimum of 10 years ministry experience
- Theology or seminary training
- Excellent management, supervisory, verbal and written communication skills
- Ability to travel 8 weeks per year (approximately two weeks quarterly)
- Open to ongoing training and education
- Ability to raise full personal support as well as develop the support health of others
- A team player who is able to collaborate with others well; both as a team member or team leader

Expectations

MAP Global is looking for a lifelong-ministry career minded individual who is passionate about their love for the Lord and for others. They should be self-motivated, reliable, professional, organized, encouraging and display the fruits of the Spirit. This position will report directly to the Executive Director in collaboration to accomplish MAP's overall ministry vision.

Salary

Salary commensurate with experience; fully support-raised position

MAP's Mission

Empower the called! We are convinced that the treasure of God's calling lies inside the called - not in the systems that exist to empower them. For this reason MAP Global exists as a "supporting agency" not a sending agency. MAP Global is designed to "come alongside" as a platform to those on their own unique journey with the Father. This includes domestic ministries, international missionaries and indigenous leaders of international ministries.

Application Instructions

Qualified applicants should send a Résumé along with a cover letter or an email description about why you believe that you would be the ideal candidate for the position to Contact@MAPGlobal.org. Optional but not required is a 3 to 5 minute video of yourself that could take the place of the cover letter or email description.
